

Jeff's Cabinet (1989)

This wall-hung cabinet was made as a wedding gift for my friend, Jeff Simpson. Made from air-dried Claro walnut with some purpleheart details. Planes and scrapers only, no sanding. Watco oil and wax finish.

The design is clearly influenced by James Krenov. This was an exercise in following the work of the master, including dovetailed sides and fine brass knife hinges from Brusso.

